

Broder & Sachse Real Estate Introduction

Broder & Sachse Real Estate ("BSRE") is a real estate development company known for bringing exceptional commercial and residential projects to life. Founded in 1993 in Birmingham, MI, BSRE has been behind several of the most influential mixed-use properties in Detroit, including The Albert in Capitol Park, a $16 million historic renovation with residential units over retail, and The Scott at Brush Park, a $65 million, five-story mixed-use development with luxury amenities. In June 2017, BSRE completed a $21 million acquisition of the Orchestra Place Office

Building in the heart of Midtown, Detroit, and is now underway with a redevelopment and activation of the ground floor, by converting the space from office to retail. Additionally, in October 2018, BSRE delivered The Hamilton, a $20 million, 97-unit, 8-story redevelopment near the corner of Woodward Avenue and Martin Luther King Blvd. BSRE's latest development, The Renato at Pullman Parc, is a $60 million, five-story, 180-unit residential development with luxury amenities located in Detroit's Lafayette Park neighborhood.
